

Peace Keepers Embassy

Salvete!

I bring greetings from the Peace Keepers, and would like to establish diplomatic relationships with your clan. We currently play RTW, but are planning to expand into Shogun 2 as soon as it is released. Hopefully we will meet on the battlefield with good humour. Please check out our forum, and feel free to open an embassy:

Best of luck, may your swords stay sharp,

Hello

You are welcome to our castle, and it fills us with pleasure to open an embassy in your forum.

We hope to be able to find you in the battlefield of the shogun for 2 total war :)

Greetings
